

Name	Do you use any other media for storytelling to kids?	Can you describe your current work situation and how you take care of your child's storytelling needs?	What challenges do you face while telling stories to your child?	Is there any way in which you feel these challenges can be resolved?	How do you prefer to explain a story to a kid? 1)Reading the story and explaining it to your child 2)Hear short audio of the story
Sajila	browse online, look for youtube videos, or read books	I am an IT Professional with heavy work stress and doesnt get enough time to spend with my toddler. She is 3 yeras old and always wants my presence and asks me to tell stories which i find it difficult. i opted permanant work from home and works at night and spends the day with the kid	I run out of stories, say baseless stories which doesnt have any morals, says the same story repeatedly, so telling them random stories will effect thir growing up	There should be an option where we could get a story based on our childs age and the stories should be interactive	It would be great if we have both the options, i would prefer hearing the audio during my other daily works so that i know what story my daughter is hearing
Arun	No	i dont get enough time to spend with my son, but he always prefers to have my attention and wants me to tell him stories, and after telling a story, he asks for more and i run out of stories. I try to make him enagaged and he becomes restlises	No proper stories, imagines new stories, reapeadly says the same stories, worries about the content of the story , how it effects the child	right stories that helps peresonality development, stories based on tasks, stories of various categories and they should b all interactive	i would prefer to read the gist of the story before my child hears the story
Anoop	browse online	i give my child youtube videos to watch to make him engaged since i dont have enough time to engage with him	i dont remember any stories	i would prefer that these stories helps developing a sleeping habit for children	Prefers to read the gist of the story
Veena	No	I have enough time, but very poor with my story telling skills. i cant convince my child with my stories and he easily gets bored	i am worried about the content of the story i tell	rather than using mobile phones because i has become an addition, i would prefer using some other devices	Hear gist of story during my other household works. i would prefer to make it short
Parvathy	Old books, browse online	I like reading, but reading a story to tell to my child is soemtimes boring and i lose interst and then i find it difficult to tell my child stories	I run out of stories, say baseless stories repeatedly	Already children are having a lot of screen time , so instead of videos, i would prefer to have audio files, just like how parents tell me stories.	Hear gist of story during my other household works. i would prefer to make it short
